Current and future culture in the county

Herefordshire Council's newly appointed lead for culture, Debbie Birch, will join us to talk about her perspective on the cultural offer in the county. There will be an opportunity to meet and mingle

Tickets not required for this event.

Do come and hear of the suffragism activities and characters in Herefordshire, the art of the era from male and female artists stirred by the principles of the movement.

All welcome, members and non members. Bring a friend.
