

The first of our autumn events

Thursday 15th October 2026 10-1.30, at Museum of Cider,
Pomona Place, Hereford HR4 OEF (Parking available on site)

Herefordshire Historic Churches Trust

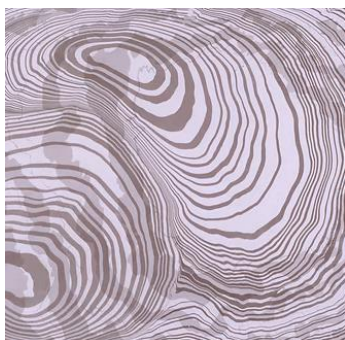

David Furnival, Chair of Herefordshire Historic Churches Trust, will talk to us about the work of the Trust in supporting churches and show images of some whose future is more secure as a result.

Herefordshire Saints on the Mormon road

Stuart Currie, Hereford Mayor's Guide and Leominster Heritage Guide, will tell us the story of a talented Leominster woman who heard the powerful message of a promised land in the US and the Mormon brethren who then travelled to Leominster to baptise her entire family. Stuart will tell us how the Mormon message was seeded in the Three Counties and of Susannah Dalley's 5,000 mile voyage by sea and overland to the US mid west.

Suminagashi Sarah Amatt

Literally floating ink, Kington based artist Sarah will talk to us about the ancient art of Japanese water marbling, her imminent trip to Japan to see the places and artisans still practising this ancient craft and demonstrate how it is done.

Voices from the Cloister - Vicars Choral of Hereford Cathedral

Elizabeth Semper O'Keefe, Cathedral archivist will tell of their colourful stories. Hereford Cathedral was not a monastic order. Instead, Vicars Choral whose college was founded in 1395, sang for worship services and special occasions.

For those people who had booked places on the original date in September and who cannot attend on this new date, a refund will be processed.

Tickets £10. Please pay directly to HMSSG account. Sort code 309089, account 32122868 using Oct Event as a reference.

Then email dzn20@aol.com to confirm how many places you would like.

If you have problems with your booking please contact Denise North on 07860947196. We hope you will bring a friend to hear about heritage being rescued, quirky county characters and an ancient art being sustained.

Our 10th November event will be publicised shortly.
